RESOLUTION

MERCHANT SHIPPING

New Delhi, the 4th September 1958

No. 39-MS(5)/58.—In their report submitted to Government in May, 1949, the Sailing Vessels Committee had recommended inter alia that suitable Advisory Committees should be set up to assist the Directorate General of Shipping in dealing with the problems connected with the development of the sailing vessels industry in India. In their Resolution No. 15-MS(1)/51, dated the 24th January 1952, the Government of India had accepted this recommendation but the implementation thereof was postponed pending the enactment of legislation to assist and regulate the development of the sailing vessels industry. As the proposed legislation has now taken shape and has been embodied in the Merchant Shipping Bill, 1958 which has already been introduced in Parliament, the Government of India feel that the time has now come for the establishment of the proposed advisory committees. Accordingly, it has been decided to set up, with immediate effect, a Central Advisory Committee at Bombay and four Regional Advisory Committees at the four regional headquarters of the sailing vessels organisation.

2. The composition and functions of the Central as well as the Regional Advisory Committees will be as follows:—

I. CENTRAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Composition

Government Members

1. Director General of Shipping, Chairman.
2. Deputy Director General of Shipping, in charge of sailing vessels.
3. Nautical Adviser to the Government of India
4. Chief Surveyer with the Government of India (to be co-opted as and when necessary).
5. One nominee, each from the Maritime States of Bombay, Mysore, Kerala, Madras, Andhra Pradesh, Orissa and West Bengal.

Non-Government Members

1. Two Members of Parliament.
2. One representative of the All India Sailing Vessels Industries Association, Bombay.
3. Two representatives of sailing vessels interests from each of the sailing vessels regions of whom one Member will be the Member of the respective Regional Advisory Committee

Functions

To discuss all major problems of All India nature relating to the Sailing Vessels Industry and to advise the Government on matters such as:—

- (a) Evolving a uniform system of trade practices, customs and usages to be observed throughout the country by those connected with the sailing vessels industry;
- (b) Ways and means to check anti-social activities prevalent in the trade;
- (c) The principles for the grant of financial assistance for the mechanisation of sailing vessels;
- (d) Framing of rules under the provisions relating to sailing vessels in the consolidated Indian Merchant Shipping Bill;
- (e) The education and training of tindels and seamen under sail;
- (f) Welfare schemes to be introduced for seafarers under sail;
- (g) Improvement of port and repair facilities where possible with special regard to the needs of sailing vessels;
- (h) Steps to be taken for the future development of sailing vessels industry and the construction of improved types of vessels on scientific lines.
- (j) To advise about the promotion of sailing vessels traffic to make the trade run on equitable lines and other allied matters pertaining to sailing vessels industry.

II. REGIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEES

Composition

Government Members

1. Regional Officer (Sails)—Chairman.
2. Nominee of Collector of Sea Customs/Central Excise.
3. Nominee of Port Administration.
4. Nominee of State Government (Marine Section).
5. Nominee of State Government (Technical Education Department).

Non-Government Members

1. Two representatives of Regional Sailing Vessels Associations, if necessary, by rotation.
2. Two representatives of owners/tindels.
3. One representative of Underwriters.
4. One representative of Freight Agents/Brokers.
5. One representative of Shippers.
6. Two representatives of Seafarers.
7. Two Members of the Legislative Assembly of the concerned region.

Functions

1. To assist, within their regions, in organising and developing the sailing vessels industry and implementing such recommendations of the Central Advisory Committee as have been accepted by the Government of India.
2. To make suggestions in respect of such matters as come within the purview of the Central Advisory Committee for consideration of that Committee.
3. To advise on the following matters within their regions:—
 - (a) Ways and means to check anti-social activities prevalent in the trade;
 - (b) Provision of cargo for sailing vessels;
 - (c) Suitability of applicants for grant of loans for the mechanisation of sailing vessels;
 - (d) Formation of co-operative societies amongst seamen for the establishment of cottage and small scale industries;
 - (e) Education of seamen;
 - (f) Any other allied matters connected with sailing vessels industry.
3. The Central Advisory Committee will normally meet once a year and the Regional Advisory Committee will meet normally once in three months.

ORDER

Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be communicated to the Private & Military Secretaries of the President, the Prime Minister's Secretariat, the Cabinet Secretariat, the Planning Commission, the Ministries of the Government of India, the Directorate General of Supplies & Disposals, All Maritime State Governments (Bombay, Mysore, Kerala, Madras, Andhra Pradesh, Orissa & West Bengal) and the Directorate General of Shipping, Bombay.

ORDER

Ordered also that the Resolution be published in the Gazette of India for general information.
